

1. Name: RAJARSHI CHATTERJEE.
2. Designation: Assistant Professor of English in the W.B.E.S.
3. Qualification: M. A. in English
4. About:

Rajarshi Chatterjee joined W.B.E.S. at Krishnagar Govt. College in 2001. An alumnus of Ramkrishna Mission Residential College, Narendrapur and Benares Hindu University, he specialises in American Literature and Linguistics. He has a Diploma in Entrepreneurship Development from IIM, Kolkata. He has also served at Durgapur Govt. College, Darjeeling Govt. College, Maulana Azad College and the Sanskrit College and University. He has served various administrative and academic sub-committees, and was Secretary, Teachers' Council for four consecutive terms while at Durgapur Govt. College, and Joint Coordinator, NAAC Steering Committee at Darjeeling Govt. College. He has previously run a UGC-funded Career Planning and Placement Cell and an Entrepreneurship Cell under the aegis of the National Entrepreneurship Network. He also devised, introduced and ran a UGC-Career Oriented Programme on language and communication. He has published papers in various national and international journals on literature, films and sports. He has also edited two books on the 'idea of development' and 'development in the Darjeeling hills and North East India'. He is an avid blogger, who has personal blogs on European football and sport. Films and popular culture, sport and the politics of nationalism are his major areas of academic interest. He is pursuing his Ph.D. from National Institute of Technology, Durgapur on the novels of Amitav Ghosh. He is an amateur photographer, foodie and music enthusiast.